Goodwest Earns Prestigious SSPC QP3 Certification

February 14, 2013 RANCHO CUCAMONGA Calif. Goodwest Linings & Coatings is proud to announce that it has earned the Society for Protective Coating's QP3 Certification. This nationally recognized certification shows that Goodwest has proficient management procedures, technical capabilities, quality control and HSE compliance.

A company must undergo an extensive audit of its processes to be certified as having met the QP3 standards. Goodwest received its QP3 certification and didn't have much trouble at all in the transition.

Patrick Sears, Goodwest Vice President of Sales, said, "We've always been a company that prides itself on safety, quality, and service. The QP3 cert really means a lot to us. While we've had a lot of these processes & procedures in place for some time, we're proud to earn this certification and be among the elite group of shop painting facilities."
